Overview

This annual report provides information regarding the magnitude and nature of delinquent conduct committed by juveniles and the juvenile probation system's response. This information is offered to assist the state's efforts in improving the juvenile justice system and reducing delinquent conduct in Texas. This report is provided in compliance with Section 203.019, Human Resources Code.

In calendar year (CY) 2024, juvenile probation departments (JPDs) saw 50,472 referrals from all sources.¹ Law enforcement accounted for 41,175, or 81.6%, of referrals. Schools, probation departments, municipal courts, and the Texas Juvenile Justice Department (TJJD) referred another 9,297 cases for delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision (CINS). This is a decrease of 2,559 referrals, or 4.8%, from CY 2023, with delinquent conduct decreasing 5.1%, violations of probation increasing 4.4%, and CINS decreasing 17.5%.

Most juveniles referred, 72.9%, were attending regular school at the time of their referral to a JPD. The remaining juveniles were in an alternative learning environment, had received a high school equivalency certificate, had graduated, had dropped out of school, or had been suspended or expelled. A juvenile justice alternative education program (JJAEP) provides education services to students who have been expelled from the public school system for committing specific delinquent conduct. JJAEPs are mandated in counties that had a population of 125,000 or greater in census year 2000. Departments serving counties that have reached a population of 125,000 or greater since census year 2000 are required to either operate a JJAEP or complete a memorandum of understanding with each school district in the county that outlines the responsibilities of the juvenile board and the school district in minimizing the number of students expelled without receiving alternative educational services. During the 2023-2024 school year, there were 27 mandatory JJAEPs operating in Texas. Of the 2,710 student entries into JJAEPs, 57.0% of the students were expelled from school for a mandatory expulsion offense, 33.2% were expelled for a discretionary expulsion offense, and 9.7% were non-expelled students ordered to attend the JJAEP by a juvenile court judge.

Disposition of a case may result from action taken by the JPD, the juvenile prosecutor, or the juvenile court. There were 50,933 dispositions given in 2024. JPDs accounted for 12,760, or 25.1%, of these dispositions, with 12.5% being dismissed or withdrawn, 58.7% receiving supervisory caution, and 28.8% receiving deferred prosecution. Juvenile prosecutors resolved an additional 18,402 cases, with 45.4% found to have no probable cause or being dismissed, refused, or non-suited; 13% receiving supervisory caution; and 41.6% receiving deferred prosecution. Juvenile courts resolved the remaining 19,771 cases. The court decision resulted in supervisory caution for less than 1.0% of cases (n=136), deferred prosecution for 14.6% of cases, and a new or modified probation in 51.8% of cases. A disposition of not guilty was entered in 27 cases. In 3,434 cases, courts transferred the case out of jurisdiction, adjudicated the case with no disposition, or consolidated it and provided disposition with another case. In 137 cases, courts certified and transferred the case to adult court. Courts ordered 574 juveniles to commitment in TJJD state-operated secure correctional facilities. Of juveniles receiving a TJJD commitment disposition, 360 received an indeterminate sentence and 214 received a determinate sentence.²

Overall, the most common dispositions were deferred prosecution supervision and dismissed, making up 27.9% and 25.3%, respectively. The next two largest categories were adjudicated probation and supervision supervisory caution, at 20.1% and 19.6%, respectively. Of dispositions, 1.1% resulted in a juvenile receiving a TJJD commitment, and 0.3% resulted in adult certification.

In 2024, the average length of stay on adjudicated probation supervision was 325 days, while the average lengths of stay on deferred prosecution supervision and pre-disposition supervision were 145 days and 113 days, respectively. The majority, 87.9%, of adjudicated probation, deferred prosecution, and pre-disposition supervision terminations during the year were successful completions, i.e. the juveniles completed all program requirements.

In 2024, 164 JPDs served the 254 counties in Texas. The JPDs operated 43 pre-adjudication secure detention facilities, one holdover facility, 28 post-adjudication secure correctional facilities, and five nonsecure correctional facilities.³ Additionally, private contractors provided services for juveniles in three pre-adjudication secure facilities and five post-adjudication secure facilities. The publicly and privately operated secure facilities provided 3,336 pre-adjudication, 8 holdover, and 2,021 post-adjudication physical beds. The nonsecure facilities had a rated capacity of 248 physical beds.

There were 24,928 releases from a pre-adjudication secure detention facility or holdover facility in CY 2024. A quarter (25.4%) of detained juveniles were released within one day. There were 2,664 releases from post-adjudication secure and nonsecure residential facilities in 2024. The average length of stay in residential placement facilities (secure and nonsecure) was 145 days. Of the releases from residential placement facilities, the majority, 81.6%, were successful completions.

³ Some pre-adjudication and post-adjudication facilities exist under one roof.

The Texas Juvenile Probation System

Introduction

Since January 1999, JPDs have been required to submit individual case file data in an electronic format to TJJD or its predecessor, the Texas Juvenile Probation Commission. In addition, annual reporting and periodic surveys from JPDs provide supplemental information to the agency.

Caution should be used in drawing general conclusions from the statistics. The data in this report portray neither everything JPDs or courts do nor how much time they spend on activities other than those represented by the statistics. At least three factors are not represented in the juvenile probation activity statistics and should be considered when evaluating them:

1. The juvenile justice system operates under the rules and authority of Title 3 of the Texas Family Code.⁴ A portion of the cases with a disposition of supervisory caution, dismissed, or another disposition have received rehabilitative and other services from the juvenile probation system. These services are not captured in the activities presented in this report.
2. Only formal referrals are reported in referral, disposition, supervision, and detention statistics. JPDs also handle a number of informal referrals, such as crisis intervention and prevention/intervention, which are not captured in this report.
3. A number of juvenile probation officers serve in both adult and juvenile capacities and often operate under varying authorities and policies.

⁴ Robert O. Dawson, Texas Juvenile Law 9th ed., (Austin: Texas Juvenile Justice Department, 2018).

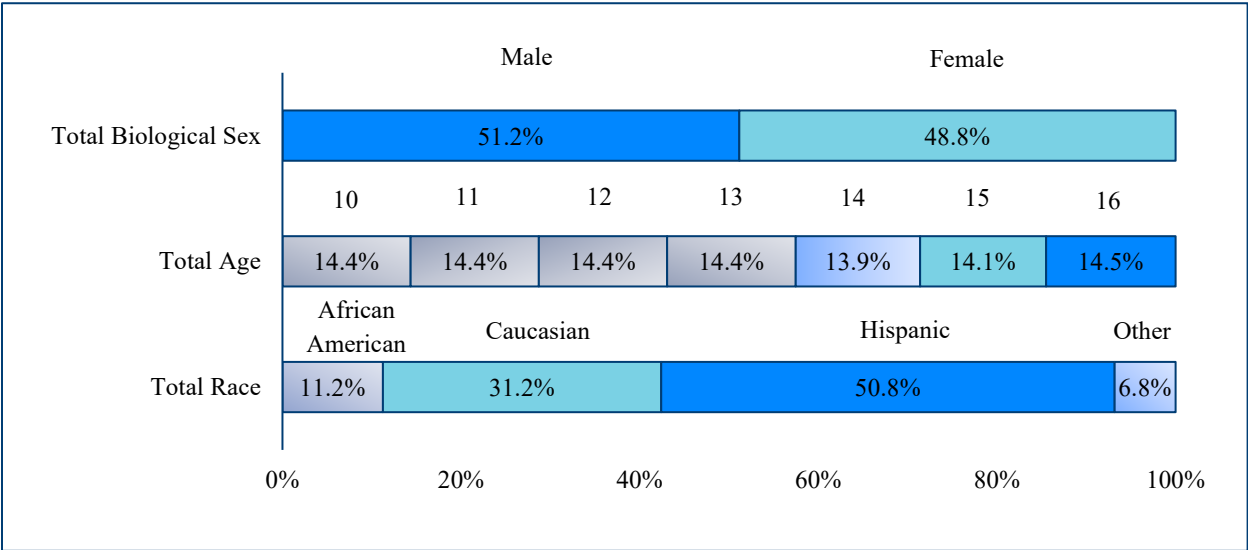

Funding

Juvenile boards work closely with commissioners’ courts to set budgets for operation of local JPDs, using both local and state funds. On average in fiscal year 2024, local commissioners’ courts provided 73.0% of the total funding to probation departments from county revenues. State funds, primarily channeled through TJJD, accounted for 27.0% of total funding for juvenile probation services.

Juvenile Population Demographic Breakdown

The Texas juvenile justice system predominantly serves youth between the ages of 10 and 16. At-risk youth under age 10 may be served in programs intended to prevent or intervene in behaviors that lead to delinquency, truancy, dropping out of school, or referral to the juvenile justice system. Youth who are age 17 or older fall under the jurisdiction of the juvenile justice system only if the alleged offense was committed when the youth was age 16 or younger or for a violation of a juvenile court order if the youth is still under supervision. Using the Texas Demographic Center’s 0.5 migration scenario projections based on the United States 2010 Census population, 2,946,141 juveniles age 10 to 16 were living in Texas in CY 2024. Biological sex, age, and race/ethnicity breakdowns of the projected 2024 populations are shown in Figure 1. Overall, 51.2% of the youth population was male and 48.8% was female. African American youth made up 11.2% of the population; Caucasian youth, 31.2%; Hispanic youth, 50.8%; and youth from other race/ethnic groups, 6.8%. Males and Hispanics comprised the largest proportion of juvenile age Texans in 2024.

Juvenile Probation Departments

Juvenile Boards

State law requires each department to have a juvenile board. Some of these boards govern multiple counties. Each board, consisting of district and county judges, is responsible for overseeing the operation of the juvenile probation system in that county. This includes designating juvenile judges, appointing the chief juvenile probation officer, and setting the policies and budget for the JPD. TJJD provides funding and technical assistance to juvenile boards.

Structure

JPDs implement the policies of juvenile boards, deliver services to juveniles referred to juvenile courts, and provide services to at-risk youth in the community. As of 2024, the juvenile probation system consists of 119 single-county departments and 45 multi-county departments, ranging from two to six counties. Five departments serve both adult and juvenile probationers, and three of these departments have designated juvenile probation officers (JPO).

Certification of Officers

Certification is required for each JPO and juvenile supervision officer (JSO) in Texas. Certification requires that officers must hold, at minimum, a bachelor's degree, while JSOs must hold, at minimum, a high school diploma or high school equivalency certificate. All officers must also undergo a criminal background check at initial certification and certification renewal. For renewals, JPOs must complete 60 hours of approved continuing education and JSOs must complete 80 hours of approved continuing education every two years. In 2024, TJJD certified 301 new JPOs and 1,252 new JSOs and renewed 1,067 existing JPO and 1,152 JSO certifications.

Salaries, Staffing, and Caseload

All JPDs surveyed for the 2024 Annual Resource Report⁵ provided responses (response rate of 100%). According to received survey data, JPDs employed 7,596 salaried personnel at the end of 2024. Seven departments had only one employee, a chief juvenile probation officer. Of the total salaried personnel, approximately 20.5% carried a caseload of at least one juvenile. On average, the daily caseload per caseload-carrying JPO in Texas ranged from 0 to 63 juveniles, with a statewide average of 15 in 2024. Table 1 shows the breakdown of department staff, average salaries, and salary ranges.⁶

⁶ As reported by local JPDs in the Annual Resource Survey. "Administrative Staff" (non-caseload carrying) may include positions such as data coordinators, compliance officers, investigators, trainers, and program specialists. "Clinical Staff" may include positions such as treatment specialists, licensed social workers, counselors, and directors of treatment. These staff categories may or may not maintain a JPO/JSO certification. The "Clinical Staff" category excludes medical professionals such as nurses, physicians, and psychiatrists. Part-time is defined as working less than 40 hours a week.

CSE-IT Continuum of Concern for Commercial Sexual Exploitation

The Commercial Sexual Exploitation-Identification Tool (CSE-IT) is an evidence-based screening tool used to identify victims of child sex trafficking.⁷ Starting in 2018, Texas juvenile justice professionals received instructions on how to administer the CSE-IT. In CY 2024, there were 30,649 CSE-IT screenings completed for youth referred to Texas JPDs.⁸ As shown in Figure 2, the majority, or 82.2% of these CSE-IT screenings resulted in No Concern for commercial sexual exploitation. Results of Possible Concern and Clear Concern for commercial sexual exploitation were 14.3% and 3.5%, respectively.

⁸ The number of CSE-IT screenings completed for youth referred to Texas JPDs will likely increase in upcoming years following the passage of HB 451 (89R, Thompson/Paxton). The bill requires JPDs, before a disposition, to screen youth for risk of commercial sexual exploitation using a validated, evidence-informed tool selected by the Child Sex Trafficking Prevention Unit established under Section 772.0062, Government Code.

Juvenile Population and Referral Activity

A youth may be referred to a JPD multiple times in one year. In CY 2024, 38,123 juveniles accounted for 50,472 total formal referrals to JPDs. The juvenile population in Texas continues to steadily increase, and referrals to JPDs are gradually returning to levels experienced prior to the COVID-19 pandemic, as illustrated in Figures 3 and 4. Formal referrals decreased by 4.8% between CY 2023 and CY 2024.

The statewide referral rate for CY 2024 was 17 youth per 1,000. As shown in Figures 5 and 6, the largest proportion of counties have a referral rate between 11 and 25 per 1,000 youth, and a felony referral rate of less than or equal to 5 per 1,000 youth.

Youth Demographics

Male youth accounted for 70.9% of all referrals to JPDs in CY 2024, and females accounted for 29.1% (Figure 7). While Caucasian youth made up 31.2% of the state's juvenile population in 2024, they accounted for only 19.7% of referrals to JPDs (Figure 8). Hispanic youth were the most populous group in the state, comprising 50.8% of the youth population and they accounted for 49.1% of referrals to probation in 2024. African American youth accounted for 11.2% of the juvenile population and 29.7% of referrals. Juveniles of "Other" race/ethnic category, including Asian and Native American, accounted for 6.8% of the state population and 1.5% of referrals.

The average age of all juvenile referrals in 2024 was 15. When looking across age groups, 16-year-old youth were the most frequently referred to JPDs. Youth age 17 or older are included in Figure 9 if the referring offense was committed at age 16 or younger, or for a violation of a juvenile court order if they were under supervision with a JPD. More than half of youth referred in CY 2024 were 15 and 16 years old.

Referral by Offense and Offense Distribution

As illustrated in Figure 10, alleged delinquent conduct (including felonies, Class A and B misdemeanors, and contempt of magistrate) made up the majority, or 86.4%, of all referrals in CY 2024. Over a third, or 41.4%, of the referrals in CY 2024 were for alleged felony delinquent conduct and 13.0% were for violent felony delinquent conduct.

Since 2020, referrals for alleged delinquent conduct have increased as a percent of total referrals (Table 2). Conversely, referrals for alleged conduct indicating a need for supervision (CINS) have decreased as a percent of total referrals since 2020. However, the percentage of referrals for alleged delinquent conduct has remained stable since CY 2022.

Referral History

In CY 2024, 38,123 juveniles were referred to JPDs. The majority, or 66.3%, had no prior referrals, while 33.7% had at least one prior referral. Of the juveniles with referral history, 46.7% had only one prior referral, while 21.6% had four or more referrals. Of youth with referral history, 59.6% had at least one prior referral for felony delinquent conduct, 25.4% had a prior referral for violent felony delinquent conduct, and 17.0% had a prior referral for violation of probation.

Juvenile Disposition and Supervision Activity

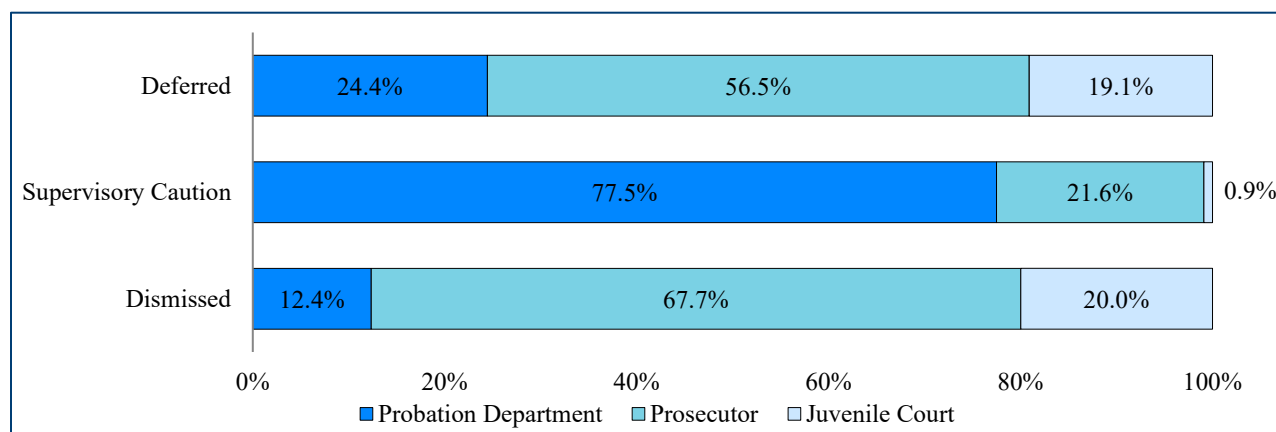

In CY 2024, 50,933 juvenile cases received a disposition. The distribution of disposition by source indicates juvenile courts entered dispositions for the largest percentage of cases at 38.8%, followed by juvenile prosecutors at 36.1%, and JPDs at 25.1%. Nearly half of all dispositions resulted in a deferred prosecution supervision or adjudicated probation supervision,⁹ at 27.9% and 20.1%, respectively. About a quarter, or 25.3%, of dispositions were dismissed,¹⁰ and 19.6% resulted in supervisory caution. There were 2,830 cases, or 5.6%, that received an outcome of consolidated or transferred with no adjudication. Commitments to TJJD made up 1.1% of dispositions, and adult certifications accounted for 0.3% of dispositions in CY 2024. TJJD commitment dispositions decreased by 3.4% between 2023 and 2024, from 594 youth to 574 youth. During the same period, the number of individuals certified to stand trial as adults also decreased 9.3% from 151 to 137 (Figure 12).

Dispositions of adult certification, TJJD commitment, and adjudicated probation supervision may be given only by the juvenile court. However, dispositions of dismissed, supervisory caution, and deferred prosecution may be given by the juvenile court, the prosecutor, or the JPD. Overall, JPDs and juvenile prosecutors were responsible for the majority of the dismissed, supervisory caution, and deferred outcome activity (Figure 13).

¹⁰ The dismissed disposition category includes department, prosecutor, and court actions of dismissed, 5301 under age 12 referral, withdrawn, no probable cause, refused, not guilty, non-suited, and adjudicated with no disposition.

Distribution of Dispositions by Age, Race/Ethnicity, and Offense Severity

Dispositions by Age

Dispositions in CY 2024 varied by the age of the youth at disposition, as shown in Figure 14. Of all age groups, 10-year-olds received more supervisory caution dispositions. Youth aged 13 to 16 years received more TJJD commitment dispositions than 10–12-year-olds. On the whole, youth between 10 and 16 years of age received more deferred prosecution dispositions or dismissals than any other dispositions.

Dispositions by Race/Ethnicity

In CY 2024, when compared to other races and ethnicities, a higher proportion of Caucasian youth received supervisory caution dispositions while a higher proportion of African American youth received probation, TJJD commitment, and adult certification than other races and ethnicities. A lower proportion of African American youth received deferred prosecution dispositions compared with youth of other races or ethnicities.

Dispositions by Offense Severity and Race/Ethnicity

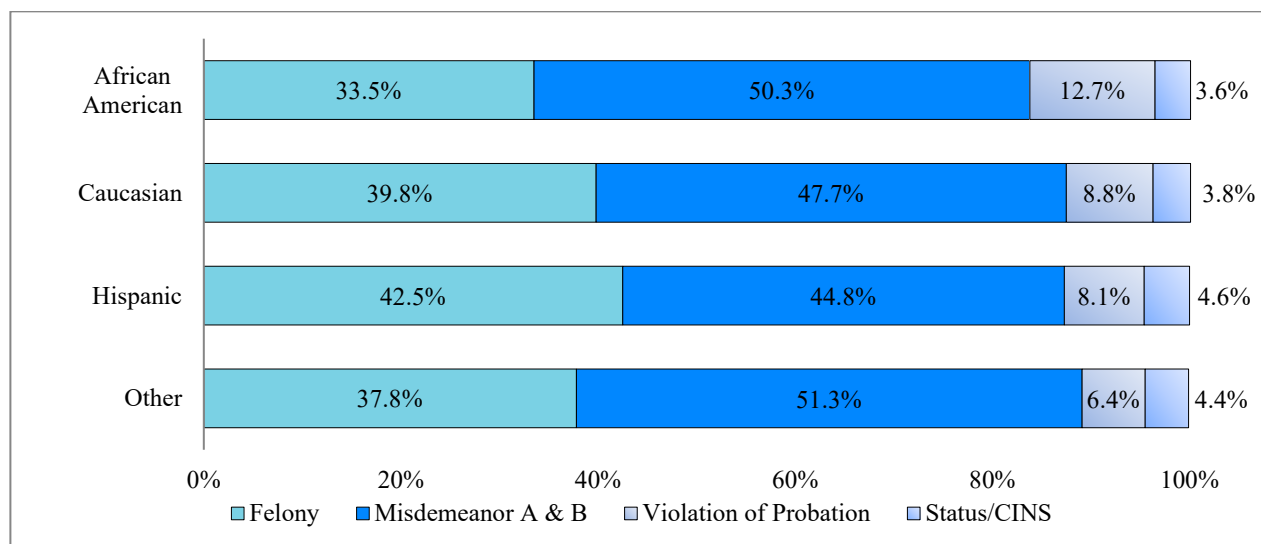

Dispositions in CY 2024 varied by offense severity, including a higher likelihood of serious delinquent conduct receiving formal sanctions. As shown in Table 3, a higher proportion of violent felony delinquent conduct received probation dispositions. A higher proportion of other felony, as well as Class A and B misdemeanor delinquent conduct, received deferred prosecution dispositions. Status offenses were most likely to receive supervisory caution dispositions. Table 3 excludes cases where the court transferred the case with no disposition or consolidated and provided disposition with another case.

With respect to the seriousness of the conduct resulting in disposition, the majority (86.3%) of dispositions were for delinquent conduct (i.e., felonies, Class A and B misdemeanors, and contempt of magistrate). Dispositions for felony delinquent conduct were higher among Hispanic and Caucasian youth compared with youth of other races and ethnicities. A higher proportion of African American youth and youth of other race/ethnicity received dispositions for Class A or B misdemeanor delinquent conduct compared with Caucasian and Hispanic youth.

Supervision Workload Activity

In CY 2024, the average daily population (ADP) of juveniles on adjudicated probation supervision was 8,820. Successful completions accounted for 84.0% of the adjudicated probation supervisions terminated during the year and 16.0% were terminated unsuccessfully prior to completing probation. Juveniles may have failed to complete probation supervision for a number of reasons, including commitment to TJJD, transfer to an adult court for trial, or terminating early due to persistent non-compliance of supervision requirements.

The ADP of juveniles on deferred prosecution supervision during the reporting period was 5,956. Successful completions of deferred prosecution supervision comprised 86.4% of the deferred prosecution supervisions terminated during the year, while 13.6% were terminated unsuccessfully prior to completion. Juveniles may have failed to complete their deferred supervision because of the reasons listed above or they may have been placed on court-ordered probation supervision because of a violation of the deferred prosecution supervision agreement.

The ADP of juveniles on pre-disposition supervision (including conditional pre-disposition supervision and temporary pre-court monitoring) during the reporting period was 6,234. Successful completions accounted for 90.5% of the pre-disposition supervisions terminated during the year, while 9.5% were terminated unsuccessfully.

There were 21,546 active supervisions on January 1, 2024. Of those youth under supervision, 42.5% were on adjudicated probation supervision, 27.8% were on deferred prosecution supervision, and 29.6% were on pre-disposition supervision (Figure 17). Figure 18 displays the number of active supervisions by county, including adjudicated probation, deferred prosecution, and pre-disposition supervision types. The majority of counties, or 84.3%, had fewer than 100 active supervisions on this date.

Supervision Admissions by Youth Demographics

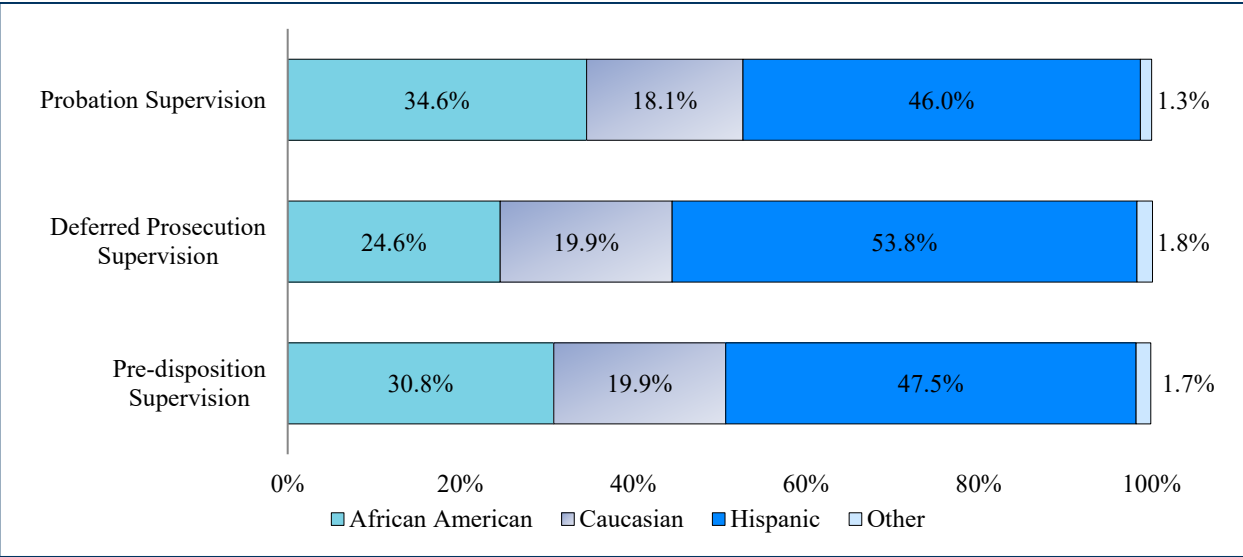

Of all supervision admissions in CY 2024, the average age of the youth at the start of supervision was 15. Youth age 16 started probation supervision, deferred prosecution supervision, and pre-disposition supervision more frequently than any other age group, as shown in Figure 19.

In CY 2024, a higher proportion of Hispanic youth started probation supervision, deferred prosecution supervision, and pre-disposition supervision than youth of any other race or ethnicity, as shown in Figure 20. A higher proportion of African American youth (34.6%) started probation supervision compared with Caucasian youth (18.1%). Caucasian youth had the lowest proportion of all supervision types compared to youth of other races and ethnicities.

Juvenile Detention and Residential Placement Activity

Facility Registry

As prescribed by Title 3, Chapter 51, Texas Family Code, the TJJD maintains a statewide registry for all local-level (i.e., not operated or contracted by the state) publicly and privately operated pre-adjudication secure detention facilities and post-adjudication secure correctional facilities located within the state. TJJD’s facility registry provides an all-inclusive listing of any such facilities and serves as a general database of facility-reported information about each registered facility. No juvenile may be placed into a pre-adjudication secure detention facility or a post-adjudication secure correctional facility that is not registered with TJJD. Table 4 provides the number and types of secure facilities registered with TJJD at any time during 2024. The “Total Rated Capacity” figures in the table reflect the maximum number of physical beds available in a facility that were architecturally designed as a housing unit.

Table 4: Secure Facilities Registered with TJJD, CY 2024

	Pre-Adjudication	Hold Over	Post-Adjudication
Number Publicly Operated	43	1	28
Number Privately Operated	3	0	5
Total Number of Registered Facilities	46	1	33
Total Rated Capacity	3,336	8	2,021

In 2011, TJJD became responsible for registering nonsecure correctional facilities operated by local JPDs. The primary difference between a nonsecure and a secure facility is the lack of construction fixtures designed to physically restrict a juvenile’s movements or activities. While the majority of the state’s nonsecure residential facilities licensed through the Texas Department of Family and Protective Services serve all types of youth from varied referral sources, the nonsecure facilities registered with TJJD only serve youth referred to the juvenile justice system. In 2024, five publicly operated nonsecure facilities were registered with TJJD. These facilities had a combined rated resident capacity of 248 physical beds.

Detention Activity

In CY 2024, the ADP of youth in pre-adjudication secure detention facilities was 1,441. There were 24,951 admissions to and 24,928 releases from detention facilities during the reporting period. Youth were detained for an average of 21 days per detention. Of youth released from pre-adjudication secure detention facilities in 2024, 25.4% were detained for 24 hours or less, 29.2% for 2 to 10 days, and 45.3% for more than 10 days. Figure 21 provides the total number of detentions by county for 2024. As shown, the majority of counties had less than 100 detentions during the year.

Residential Placement Activity

In CY 2024, the ADP of youth in residential placement facilities was 1,077. The ADP was 730 in secure correctional placement facilities and 347 in nonsecure residential placement facilities. Figure 22 illustrates the counties with post-adjudication secure correctional facilities,¹¹ and the ADP in post-adjudication secure correctional facilities for the state's seven probation regions.

There were 2,625 admissions to and 2,664 releases from residential placement facilities during the reporting period. Of these releases, 1,206 were from nonsecure residential placement facilities and 1,458 were from secure correctional placement facilities.¹² The average length of stay in residential placement facilities was 145 days. Placements in secure correctional facilities had a longer average length of stay (180 days) than placements in nonsecure residential facilities (101 days). Of the 1,206 nonsecure placement terminations during the year, 78.7% were successful completions, while 21.3% ended unsuccessfully. Successful completions accounted for 84.0% of the 1,458 secure placement terminations during the year, while 16.0% ended unsuccessfully.

¹² These placements do not include secure pre-adjudication or holdover detention facility placements.

Appendix A: Glossary of Juvenile Probation Terminology

General Terms

Active Cases: All cases resulting in detention, placement, or supervision during a specified period.

Average Daily Population (ADP): The average number of active cases per day during a specified period.

Average Length of Stay: The average number of days children in terminated cases spent in detention, in placement, or under supervision during a specified period.

Child (Juvenile): A person who is 10 years of age or older and under 17; or a person who is 17 years of age or older and under 18 who is alleged or found to have engaged in delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision as a result of acts committed before turning 17. Section 51.02(2), Family Code Section.

Conduct Indicating a Need for Supervision (CINS): Conduct, other than a traffic offense, that is a fine-only misdemeanor under state law or that violates a penal ordinance of any political subdivision of the state but only if the child has been referred to juvenile court for the conduct as provided by Section 51.08(b), Family Code; running away from home; conduct prohibited by city ordinance or by state law involving inhalant abuse; an act that results in expulsion from school under Section 37.007(c), Education Code; prostitution; solicitation of prostitution; electronic transmission of certain visual material depicting minor (i.e. “sexting”); and false report to induce emergency response, but only if the child has not previously been adjudicated for having engaged in such conduct. Section 51.03(b), Family Code.

Delinquent Conduct: Conduct, other than a traffic offense, that violates a penal law of Texas or of the United States that is punishable by imprisonment or by confinement in jail; conduct that violates a lawful order of a court under circumstances that constitute contempt of court in justice or municipal court, county court for conduct punishable by a fine only, or truancy court; conduct that violates Section 49.04, 49.05, 49.06, 49.07, or 49.08, Penal Code; and the third or subsequent offense in violation of Section 106.041, Alcoholic Beverage Code, relating to driving under the influence of alcohol by a minor. Section 51.03(a), Family Code. Delinquent conduct does not include conduct punishable by imprisonment or confinement in jail that is defined as CINS.

Detention: A secure facility administered by a governing board that includes construction and fixtures designed to physically restrict the movements and activities of juveniles or other individuals held in lawful custody in the facility and used for the temporary placement of a juvenile who is accused of having committed an offense and is awaiting court action, an administrative hearing, or other transfer action. A pre-adjudication secure detention facility does not include a short-term detention facility as defined by Section 51.12(j), Family Code. For additional information, refer to subchapters A, B, C, and E of 37 Texas Administrative Code Chapter 343.

Formal Referral: An event that occurs only when all three of the following conditions exist: (1) a juvenile has allegedly committed delinquent conduct, conduct indicating a need for supervision, or a violation of probation; (2) the juvenile court served by the JPD has jurisdiction and (3) the office or official designated by the juvenile board has made face-to-face contact with the juvenile and the alleged offense has been presented as the reason for this contact or the office or official has given written or verbal authorization to detain the juvenile.

Juvenile Board: A governing board created under Chapter 152, Human Resources Code, to oversee the provision of juvenile probation services by a JPD.

Juvenile Court: A court designated under Section 51.04, Family Code, to exercise jurisdiction over proceedings under Title 3 of the Family Code.

Juvenile Probation Department (JPD): An organized department delivering services in one or more counties; established and supervised by a juvenile board. Chapter 152, Human Resources Code.

Nonsecure Correctional Facility: Any public or private residential facility operated solely or partly by or under contract with a juvenile board or governing board in which the construction fixtures, hardware, staffing models, and procedures do not restrict the egress of residents from the facility. For additional information, refer to 37 Texas Administrative Code Chapter 355.

Paper-Formalized Referral: Occurs when a referral that began as a paper complaint (paperwork only) is later formalized with face-to-face contact.

Program: A planned or coordinated activity or group of activities designed to address a specific purpose or goal including, but not limited to, altering a juvenile's behavior to reduce delinquency. To be considered a program, there must be a curriculum, strategy, or plan to achieve the designated goal(s). Participation in a program is either required by or tied to the juvenile's supervision.

Post-Adjudication Secure Correctional Facility: A secure facility operated by or under contract with a governing board that includes construction and fixtures designed to physically restrict the movements and activities of the residents and is intended for the treatment and rehabilitation of youth who have been adjudicated. As defined in 37 Texas Administrative Code Chapter 343, a post-adjudication secure correctional facility does not include any nonsecure residential programs operating under the authority of a governing board.

Residential Placement: Supervision ordered by a juvenile court in accordance with Section 54.04(d)(1)(B), Family Code, in which the child is placed on probation outside the child's home in a foster home or a public or private institution or agency. For additional information, refer to 37 Texas Administrative Code Chapter 341.

Status Offender: A child who is accused, adjudicated, or convicted for conduct that would not, under state law, be a crime if committed by an adult. For specific status offense categories, refer to Section 51.02(15), Family Code.

Dispositions

5301 Under Age 12 Referral: The juvenile participates in the 5301 Under Age 12 Diversion supervision provided by a community resource coordination group (CRCG), local-level interagency staffing group or other community juvenile service provider. See Texas Family Code Sections 53.01(b-1) and 53.011.

Adjudicated to Probation: A disposition option in which a juvenile who has been found to have engaged in delinquent conduct and/or conduct in need of supervision is formally placed on probation under the supervision of the juvenile court for a specified period. The juvenile has been adjudicated and placed on probation in the child's own home or in the custody of a relative or other fit person. The juvenile may be required to participate in a variety of appropriate programmatic services (e.g., counseling, community services) and may also be subject to other reasonable court-ordered restrictions or conditions. Section 54.04(d)(1)(A), Family Code.

Adjudicated to Probation with Placement: A disposition option in which a juvenile who has been found to have engaged in delinquent conduct and/or conduct indicating a need for supervision is formally placed on probation under the supervision of the juvenile court for a specified period. The adjudicated juvenile is placed on probation and ordered to placement in a foster home, residential treatment facility, post-adjudication secure correctional facility, or nonsecure correctional facility. The juvenile may be required to participate in a variety of appropriate programmatic services and may also be subject to other reasonable court-ordered restrictions or conditions. Sections 54.04(d)(1)(B) and (d)(5), Family Code.

Adult Certification: A discretionary procedural action in which the juvenile court transfers its jurisdiction to the criminal court in order to allow a juvenile to be prosecuted as an adult. Depending on the type of felony conduct alleged, a juvenile as young as 14 years of age, and in some circumstances 10 years of age, may be certified to stand trial as an adult. Section 54.02, Family Code.

Commitment: The term used when a juvenile is committed to the care, control, and custody of the TJJD. Beginning in 2007, all commitments to TJJD, except those under the Determinate Sentencing Act, were for an indeterminate term not to extend beyond the juvenile's 19th birthday. Section 54.04, Family Code.

Consolidated Case: A situation in which multiple offenses are alleged in one petition or in multiple petitions, but all of the offenses are addressed in one disposition event.

Deferred Prosecution: A voluntary dispositional alternative to adjudication in which the juvenile, parent/guardian(s), and intake agency or court agree upon supervision conditions. The time period cannot exceed six months except that, if a court places the child on deferred prosecution as provided in Section 53.03(i) and (j), Family Code, the juvenile may be supervised for up to one year or a combined period not to exceed one year if the time is added to a previous order of deferred prosecution.

Determinate Sentence Commitment: A disposition available for a juvenile adjudicated for delinquent conduct that violates a penal law listed in Section 53.045(a), Family Code, or for engaging in habitual felony conduct as defined in Section 51.031, Family Code. A determinate sentence petition must be approved by a grand jury. A juvenile may be committed to the TJJD for a specified term of up to 40 years with a possible transfer to the Correctional Institutions Division of the Texas Department of Criminal Justice. Section 54.04(d)(3), Family Code. Determinate sentenced offenders have a minimum period of confinement based on the felony level of the committing offense. Sections 245.051(c), Human Resources Code.

Determinate Sentence Probation: A disposition in which a child given a determinate sentence commitment of 10 years or less may instead be ordered to determinate sentence probation by a court or jury for a period of up to 10 years. The probation may be transferred to the adult district court at age 19. Sections 54.04(q), and 54.051, Family Code.

Determinate Sentence Probation with Placement: A disposition in which a child placed on determinate sentence probation is ordered to placement in a facility. The juvenile may be required to participate in a variety of appropriate programmatic services (e.g., counseling, treatment, programs) and may also be subject to other reasonable court-ordered restrictions or conditions.

Dismissed or Withdrawn by Department: An alleged offense against the juvenile will not be pursued and no disposition will be imposed per decision of the JPD.

Dismissed/No Probable Cause by Prosecutor: The prosecuting attorney reviews the circumstances and allegations of a referral for legal sufficiency and the desirability of prosecution and determines that no probable cause exists. Because this is a dismissal due to no probable cause, the court must order the records destroyed. Section 58.263, Family Code.

Dismissed by Court: An order, judgement, or action finally disposing of the charge without adjudication of the issue involved.

Indeterminate Sentence Commitment: A disposition in which a juvenile who has been found to have engaged in delinquent conduct that is eligible for commitment to TJJD is committed for an indeterminate or unspecified term not to exceed his or her 19th birthday. Only a felony adjudication or probation modification for an underlying felony adjudication may result in a commitment. Section 54.04(d)(2), Family Code. TJJD has established minimum lengths of stay for all youth committed with an indeterminate sentence.

Modified and/or Extended Probation: An extension or revision of a prior court order of probation in which the juvenile continues to be on probation supervision in the child's home or in the custody of a relative or other fit person. The modification may result in additional programmatic sanctions and/or services and may include an extension that results in additional supervision time. Section 54.05, Family Code.

Modified/Extended Probation with Placement: An extension or revision of a prior court order of probation in which the juvenile continues to be on probation supervision and is ordered to placement in a facility. This modification may result in additional programmatic sanctions and/or services (e.g., counseling, substance use rehabilitation program, mental health treatment) and may include an extension that results in additional supervision time.

Non-suited: A petition filed by the prosecutor with the juvenile court that has subsequently been dismissed, with or without prejudice.

Refused by Prosecutor: An instance in which the prosecuting attorney reviews the circumstances and allegations of a referral for legal sufficiency and the desirability of prosecution and refuses to prosecute the case for any reason other than a finding of no probable cause. The case is closed without a petition being filed or sanctions imposed.

Supervision: A process that involves the case management of a juvenile by the assigned juvenile probation officer or designee through contacts (e.g., face-to-face, telephone, office, home, collateral) with the juvenile, the juvenile's family, and other case planning participants. For additional information, refer to 37 Texas Administrative Code Chapter 341.

Supervisory Caution: A summary disposition made by the probation department. This informal disposition option may include counseling the juvenile about the consequences of his or her conduct, contacting the juvenile's parents to inform them of the juvenile's behavior, or referring the juvenile to a social service agency or a community-based citizen intervention program approved by the juvenile court. Sections 59.004 and 264.302, Family Code.

Supervision Types and Outcomes

Absent without Permission: The juvenile fails to report or cannot be found. For reporting purposes, a supervision is closed as "absent without permission" and no longer considered active no earlier than 45 days after the date the juvenile is considered absent.

Completed: The juvenile completed the supervision without incident.

Conditional Pre-disposition Supervision (i.e., Conditions of Release): This supervision type is either ordered by the court or ordered by the probation department with authority from the judge. Most conditional pre-disposition supervisions are ordered at the time of the detention hearing, but juveniles can be placed under this supervision type without having been detained. By law, the conditions are to be limited to those that are reasonable and necessary to ensure the juvenile will return to court. Section 54.01(f), Family Code.

Court-Ordered Probation: A disposition option in which a juvenile who has been found to have engaged in delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision is placed on probation under the supervision of the juvenile court for a specified period of time. 54.04(d)(1), Family Code. A juvenile who has been adjudicated and placed on probation may be required to participate in a variety of appropriate programmatic services (e.g., intensive supervision programs, residential placement, community supervision) and may also be subject to other reasonable court-ordered restrictions or conditions. This category also includes the disposition of determinate sentence probation that may be ordered by a court or jury for a period of up to 10 years for specific violent or habitual conduct, as long as the child's underlying sentence is no more than 10 years. Section 54.04(q), Family Code.

Deferred Prosecution: A voluntary dispositional alternative to adjudication in which the juvenile, parent/guardian(s), and intake agency or court agree upon supervision conditions. The time period cannot exceed six months except that, if a court places the child on deferred prosecution as provided in Section 53.03(i) and (j), Family Code, the juvenile may be supervised for up to one year or a combined period not to exceed one year if the time is added to a previous order of deferred prosecution. Section 53.03, Family Code.

Failure to Comply: Supervision terminated before the anticipated end date because of a new offense or because the juvenile refused to accept services and/or was persistently non-compliant with the terms of supervision.

Temporary Pre-court Monitoring: This is an unofficial form of pre-dispositional supervision used only when a juvenile is pending a disposition decision or court action. Temporary pre-court monitoring may be used on a voluntary basis if agreed to by the juvenile and the juvenile's parents. There is no Family Code basis for this supervision type; therefore, a juvenile cannot be sanctioned for not following the conditions set forth.

TJJD Commitment: The juvenile's supervision ended because the juvenile was committed to TJJD.

Transferred Out of Jurisdiction: The juvenile's supervision ended because the juvenile moved from one jurisdiction to another and services were transferred to the new jurisdiction. This outcome is used when a juvenile leaves one jurisdiction on an Interstate Compact or inter-county transfer and when a juvenile on determinate sentence probation has his or her probation transferred to the adult system.

Transferred to the Adult System: The juvenile's supervision ended because the juvenile was transferred to the adult system.
