OVERVIEW

The Program

The V.G. Young Institute of County Government, a part of the Texas A&M AgriLife Extension Service, has served as a trusted resource for continuing education for county officials since 1969. This year, we proudly celebrate the 44th Annual School for County Tax Assessor-Collectors.

The Audience

Each year, more than 350 Tax Assessor-Collectors, deputies, and staff attend our conference to earn continuing education credits toward their professional designations, network with peers, and gain insights from content experts.

Sponsorship

Support from Exhibitors and Sponsors make the conference a success.

We appreciate your interest in joining us this November and look forward to partnering with you. If you have any questions about sponsorship opportunities, the conference program, or event logistics, please don't hesitate to contact us at 979.845.4572 or by email at jennifer.ernst@ag.tamu.edu.
